To One

Who teaches,
and instills a desire to learn with that teaching,
Who listens to our problems,
and eases them with that listening,
Who smiles,
and creates the warmth of friendship with that smile.
We the Beta Club of 1963, dedicate with pride, gratitude and love this book to you, MISS VANNER NEECE

In Memoriam

Randy Underwood

THE SCENT OF THE ROSES

Let Fate do her worst there are relics of joy,
Bright dreams of the past, which
She cannot destroy;
Which come in the night-time of sorrow and care,
And bring back the features that
Joy used to wear.

Long, long be my heart with such memories filled,
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled--
You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

Class Prophecy

The sands in the hour glass have gradually trickled away. It is now the year 1973. Let's look in on our classmates and see how they are making out on this, the tenth anniversary of our graduation day.

As a result of his advancement in his senior science and physics classes, Darell Beck is now president of a glass polishing industry.

Moleta Briles is a nurse at Randolph Memorial Hospital.

Pat Buckner, our queen, married her king and, thus far, has lived happily ever after.

Shirley Carter is the wife of a well-known realtor.

The Dodgers and the New York Yankees are having an all-out war over Larry Cox.

Shirley Dean is a housewife and a commercial artist. She has a pencil in one hand and a spoon in the other.

Phyllis Dodson is a member of our own faculty here at Gray's Chapel. She is teaching fifth grade.

Mary Lou Fields is editor of the "New York Times" as a result of the excellent experience she got as head of our annual staff.

Wallace Fields is now a famous sign painter. It seems he began in this business by borrowing signs from a well-known realtor to use as patterns.

Gracie Freeman is now employed by a local model agency. She poses for various artists, one of whom is the artist of a famous comic strip.

Linda Garner is proud of her new brick home in Millboro, N. C.

Larry Gunn is owner of a chain of service stations that are scattered from coast to coast.

Terry Hackett, who is a Captain in the U.S. Navy, is aboard a battleship heading in the direction of Russia.

Mary Faye Hancock is employed as a textile worker at Klopman Mills.

Brenda Jarrett is private secretary for the Mayor of New York.

Doris Jennings has set up housekeeping and seems to be making her husband very happy.

Richard Kime has just replaced Rock Hudson as the America Movie Ideal.

Parsy Kinley is co-owner of a dancing salon known as "Arthur's" in Asheboro, N. C.

Gaynell Kirkman, who always did love to try to tell twins apart, now has a set of her own to figure out.

Doris Lambert is French interpreter for the U.N. as a result of her excellent accomplishments in French class.

J. D. Lawson is now touring the country in search of his fortune.

Linda Little is X-ray technician for Randolph Hospital.

After making such a success at basketball playing at Campbell College, Larry Pennington is now playing professional basketball.

Tommy Routh, due to his experience in the field of farming, is now the Assistant County Agriculture Agent. He is also part-time employed as a cattle judge at the local stock yard.

Gary Shelar is a successful businessman and is spending most of his time at his resort in Palm Beach.

Carolyn Stalker has just made the last payment on that king-sized diamond she got while in high school.

Elaine Thomas has now picked up quite a few little Aumans.

Janet Thomas is a registered nurse at Moses Cones' Memorial Hospital. She is married to a local mechanic.

Elaine Ward still hates second shift but is now not so lonely with her little ones and her housework to keep her busy.

W. M. York is now employed.

Jo Ellen Yow is unemployed at present but seems to be touring the country with a local soldier of fortune.

Class History

Only twelve short years ago, we, the Class of '63, entered the halls of Gray's Chapel as first graders. We were proud and excited to be going to school at last. During our years at "Chapel" we have made many friends and learned the art of living. These adventures will be very important to us in the future, as will the education we have earned here. Many things will be forgotten but some are permanently etched on our memories.

As a class, we have been moved from place to place frequently. We began our school days in the "old building" in Mrs. Redding's room. Our fourth grade year was the first of three we spent in the "hut". We also spent one year in the "new building". Now, as Seniors, we have returned to our first home where we shall soon complete our final days at Gray's Chapel High School.

Class Historian

Class Song

Beyond the sunset
Our star is shining
To guide us onward
With dreams set high.
So as we leave you,
Our hearts are heavy
Because we'll miss you,
Gray's Chapel High.

Beyond the sunset
The future's waiting.
We cannot tarry
Much longer, friend.
But as we pass from
These halls of Chapel,
It is our prayer that
We'll meet again.

Beyond the sunset
Our star is calling;
And soon as classmates
We will depart.
But we'll remember
These halls of Chapel,
Linked with the memories
Within our heart.

As we must travel
Life's busy highway,
Our faith in God
We'll never lack.
He guides us onward,
Forever onward,
Because there can be
No turning back.

So as we leave thee,
Our dear Gray's Chapel,
We wish our classmates
Of Sixty-three,
The best there can be
In God's great world;
And may His wishes
Always guide thee.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1963, being of sound mind and strong body, having attained ample knowledge to graduate and take up the toil and hardships of life, do hereby declare and make this our Last Will and Testament.

I, Darell Beck, will my bus "39" along with four spare clutches to Jimmy McDaniel, my substitute driver.

I, Moleta Briles, will to my sister Mildred my Shorthand book and hope she has better luck with it than I did.

Pat Buckner and Shirley Dean leave their ability to do more and get caught less to Phyllis Smith and "Puud" Craven.

I, Shirley Carter, will my Shorthand book to Miss Morris, so she can teach Latin.

I, Larry Cox, will my English Literature book to anyone out of his mind.

I, Phyllis Dodson, do hereby leave my driving ability to Barbara Brown in hopes that she will preserve the shrubbery.

I, Mary Lou Fields, leave to Martha Sue Fields my position as annual editor and hope that she will find a way to get 25 hours in her day.

I, Wallace Fields, sound in body, uncertain in mind do hereby will all my earthly belongings to Mr. Bortner and my muscular build to Darrell Routh.

I, Gracie Freeman, leave my dimples to Mr. Bortner since he needs at least one more thing to adorn his face.

I, Linda Garner, will Frances Little a part of my happiness.

I, Larry Gunn, will my ability to pick at the girls to Roger Davis.

I, Terry Hackett, will my muscular build to George Swaim and my position as Manager to anyone who thinks he can please Mr. York.

I, Mary Faye Hancock, will my ability to get along with Mr. Bortner to Frances Little.

I, Brenda Jarrett, will my position as Chief Cheerleader to anyone with a big mouth and my superlative "Best-All-Around" to Martha Sue Fields.

I, Doris Jennings, will my ability to tear tail pipes off Mr. Thomas's car to Judy Hardin and my superlative "Best Sport" to Joyce Kidd.

I, Richard Kime, will my ability to keep Mr. York in cigarettes to anyone.

I, Patsy Kinley, will my shorthand book to the nearest incinerator.

I, Gaynell Kirkman, leave to be with "Don", together we shall look for what the future holds.

I, Doris Lambert, will my fondness for Algebra to Faye Lambert in hopes that she will someday know what the teacher is talking about.

I, J. D. Lawson, hereby leave with pleasure.

I, Linda Little, have always heard that the grass is greener on the other side of the fence, now I'm going to find out.

I, Larry Pennington, will my ability to get along with Miss Neece to anyone who thinks he can get along with her any better.

I, Tommy Routh, will my superlative "Most Reckless" to Miss Neece and my seven books of green stamps to my Economics instructor, Mr. Bortner.

I, Gary Shelar, will my Geometry book to anyone who is dumb enough to take it.

I, Carolyn Stalker, will my superlative "Beggest Flirt" to Marilyn Hodgin and my seat in Economics class to anyone who wants to get brainwashed fast.

I, Elaine Thomas, leave "a certain picture" to Doris Kirkman because it was originally hers anyway.

I, Janet Thomas, will my title, FFA Sweetheart, to anyone lucky enough.

I, Elaine Ward, leave to join Donald and also I will my typewriter to Louise and hope she has better luck than I did.

I, W. M. York, will Faye Lambert and Marie Jarrell all my Algebra notes, with hopes that they can figure out which is which.

I, Jo Ellen Yow, do hereby leave happily with J. D.
